NORTHERN STAR SNO-RIDERS SNOWMOBILE CLUB

2609 Northwoods Ln, 55803 • (218) 525-9252
There may only be snow on the ground five months of the year, but the Northern Star Sno-Riders are active year-round with fundraising tasks to support safety & public education for the snowmobile trail activities. These activities bring safety elements & fun to the sport of snowmobiling in the area. Along with supporting the sports backbone trail educational duties, the club also plans routine adventure rides in the area throughout the season. The Duluth vicinity has over 700 miles of groomed trails to enjoy with easy access from one of our local trailheads. So, don’t waste any time thinking of what to do, get on a snowmobile and enjoy a day on our trails.
It will keep you smiling! Minnesota snowmobile trails are open from Dec 1 until March 31, honoring any state’s registration and a MN Trail pass, which is available at all licensing centers.
NE MN Trail Maps are available at Visit Duluth and snowmobile dealers.

PEQUAYWAN AREA SNOWMOBILE TRAIL SYSTEM

PO Box 3105, Duluth, MN 55803
(218) 848-2510 Come join us in a fun day of snowmobiling our area trails with family and friends. We are located just north of Duluth, we pride ourselves on well-groomed and signed trails for your snowmobiling comfort ... added to our remote picturesque scenery around every trail corner, equals fabulous daily riding. Our trails system connects the Duluth area to the North shore Trail system & the Iron Range Trail system, as well as to our friendly neighbors in the Reservoir Lakes system to our west. We harbor above-average snow depth for Minnesota annually and have plenty of lodging located in Duluth / Two Harbors area. So, come join us. Open 24/7 from Dec 1-Mar 31 annually. A state snowmobile license and trail pass required.

Looking for fun things to do in the winter in the Duluth area? Join us on the wonderful “Reservoir Lakes Trails” just north of Duluth.
Our 80-member club supports over 100 miles of wonderfully fun local lakes trails with hundreds of miles of connecting trails to the North Shore Trail, Iron Range Trails, and westerly trails.
Bottom-line ... there is plenty of area to roam.
There are surely enough trails for days of fun riding with convenient fueling, eateries and amenities all along the way. Our trails have some of the highest snowfall totals in the state, so we have just the starting point for your visit with a large parking lot next to our facilities at the hub of the system, with maps available through Visit Duluth or from us directly. Think Snow and hope to see you out enjoying a winter day.

Make a connection to Lake Superior’s North Shore in a whole new way on our incredible, state-of-the-art, recumbent tricycles. VISUALLY EXPERIENCE THE TRIKES RIGHT NOW by clicking onto the streaming video on our Web site.

Bring your camera, bring your backpack and bring your sense of adventure, because you will get closer to Mother Nature than ever before. Face-to-face, in fact, when it comes to wolves at Ely’s International Wolf Center, a few hours north of town. The same is true at the Vince Shute Bear Sanctuary, near Orr. On Scenic Highway 1, you’ll marvel at forest creatures from the tiniest baby rabbit to the mighty Minnesota moose on your way to the famous Boundary Waters Canoe Area Wilderness. Or travel the Gunflint Trail from Grand Marais to the edge of the BWCAW. If you’re in for a hardy hike, take the Lake Superior Hiking Trail all the way up the North Shore. This is Minnesota wilderness at its best, and Duluth is the best way to get there.
