

No matter what your taste, you'll discover your perfect night on the town in Duluth. From a four-course meal at an Italian restaurant to a fun-filled happy hour with appetizers and microbrews, it's all here.

LIVE HISTORY... Rediscover that first rush with a weekend at one of Duluth's beautiful B&Bs, each with a story of its own to tell. Take an old-fashioned horse and carriage ride, or spend an evening antiquing in Duluth's waterfront shopping district. □

DULUTH'S HISTORIC BED & BREAKFAST INNS WERE RECENTLY HONORED ON COASTAL LIVING MAGAZINE'S "TOP TEN B&B TOWNS" LIST.

ALONE + TOGETHER

OUT ON THE TOWN

You don't have to travel far to find a place of your own in Duluth. Lace up your boots and enjoy the diverse terrain and beautiful vistas of the Superior Hiking Trail. Take a drive a few miles up the North Shore to Stony Point and enjoy a picnic on the rocks. Or, simply wander through acres of forested land—in the city—at Hartley Nature Center.

In the evenings, you can explore our arts and cultural hub. Giggle at a high-energy comedy theater production. Marvel at our city's beautiful architecture on a historic home tour. Even enjoy a night at the symphony, the ballet, or the opera.

And since you're getting away from it all, why not go all the way back to the turn of the century? In the early 1900s, mining and timber barons built many of Duluth's incredible mansions. At the time, Duluth had more millionaires per capita than any other city in the world, and they spared no expense in designing their beautiful homes. Spend a romantic weekend in one of these mansions-turned-inns, known as much for their warmth and hospitality as for their elaborate antiques and amenities.